

Family name	Hooijberg
Prefix
First name	Emma
Initials of your given names	EH
Title (Prof./Dr./Mr./etc.)	Prof
Gender	female
Institution / Company	University of Pretoria
Department	Companion Animal Clinical Studies

Short Bio:

Short CV Prof Emma Hooijberg BVSc PhD CertGP(SAP) DipECVCP - Graduated from Faculty of Veterinary Science, University of Pretoria, South Africa with a BVSc in 2001 - Spent 6 years in small animal practice in the UK - Completed a residency in Veterinary Clinical Pathology in Vienna, Austria, and became a Diplomate of the European College of Veterinary Clinical Pathology in 2012 - Worked in academia and a commercial diagnostic lab in Vienna for a further 2 years - Joined the Dept. of Companion Animal Clinical Studies at the Faculty of Veterinary Science, University of Pretoria at the end of 2014. - Completed PhD investigating various aspects of clinical pathology in the white rhinoceros in 2017 - Currently Associate Professor and Head of Section of Clinical Pathology - Involved in management and diagnostic service in the lab, undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and research - 18 publications, editorial board member for Veterinary Clinical Pathology, reviewer for several international journals, contributor of book chapters and cases for clinical pathology textbooks - Areas of special interest include diagnostic cytology, inflammatory markers and acute phase proteins, clinical pathology of wildlife, reference intervals and biological variation and laboratory quality assurance.